

0% interest rate and other federal student loan flexibilities have been extended until Dec. 31, 2020

ParNoPell,

You recently received a communication about the extension of current federal student loan relief measures through Dec. 31, 2020. This extension includes the continuation of a 0% interest rate on federal student loans. For more information about additional flexibilities, visit our latest article, which provides six things students need to know during the coronavirus.

Visit Our Latest Article

To better understand how your federal student loans affect your financial future, check out your Annual Student Loan Acknowledgment.

View Your Acknowledgment

Available Resources

Log in with your FSA ID to update your contact information

Explore Loan Simulator to see loan repayment options for after graduation

See COVID FAQs to find out about federal student aid flexibilities during COVID-19

Download the myStudentAid Mobile App Today

This email was sent by: Office of Federal Student Aid
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Ave. SW,
Washington, DC, 20002, US

Please do not reply to this email. Messages sent to this email address are not monitored. If you wish to contact us, please use the StudentAid.gov contact page. For more information about financial aid, visit StudentAid.gov.