

Gainful Employment Debt-to-Earnings Backup Data Viewer Tool Instruction Guide

October 2016

1. NSLDS Gainful Employment Debt-to-Earnings Backup Data Viewer Introduction

The Department of Education releases Gainful Employment (GE) Debt-to-Earnings rates on an annual basis. The supporting records are provided to institutions in the GE Debt Measures Backup Data file that contains students who were included in the Debt-to-Earnings calculation for the current calculation year. This list is created from data provided by your school, matched with SSA, and then matched with NSLDS loan and enrollment data. The initial file is the Draft GE Debt-to-Earnings calculation. You may challenge the loan data, associated with your student and their attendance in a specific Gainful Employment program. Challenges may be submitted for individual loans found in your GE Debt Measures Backup within the designated time period, and are adjudicated by the Department; after which Final GE Debt-to-Earnings rates are calculated.

NSLDS has created a tool that will assist you in viewing your Gainful Employment Debt Measures Backup Data file for the Debt-to-Earnings rate calculation. The following set of instructions will explain the features of the tool, how to open your file in the tool, and how to view your student, program, and loan data.

Remember: Challenges are not submitted via the Viewer tool. This tool is for the purpose of data review only.

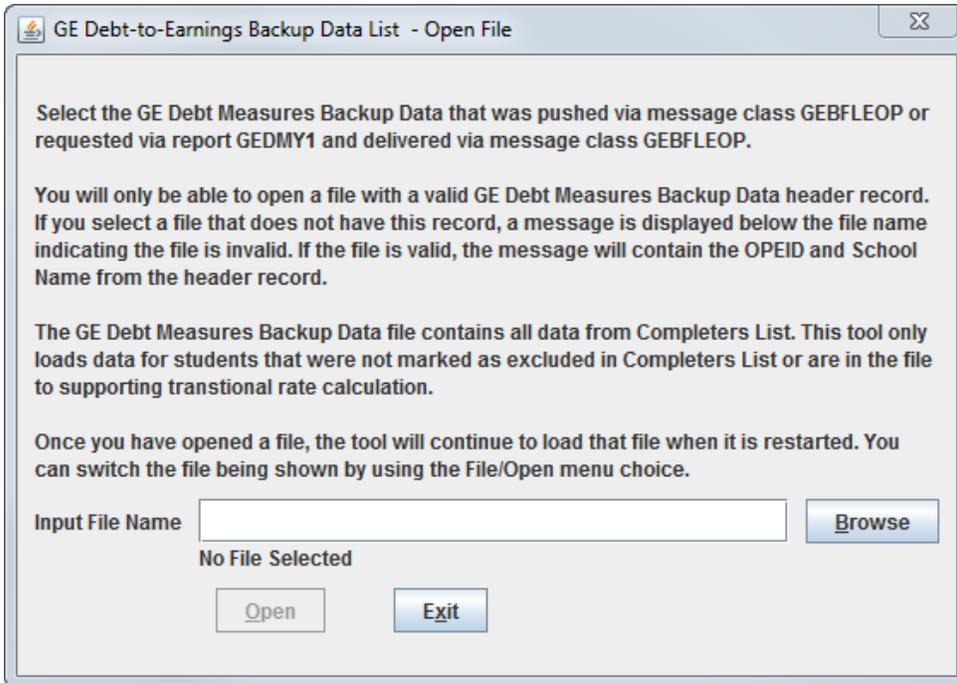

2. Getting Started

Saving Software

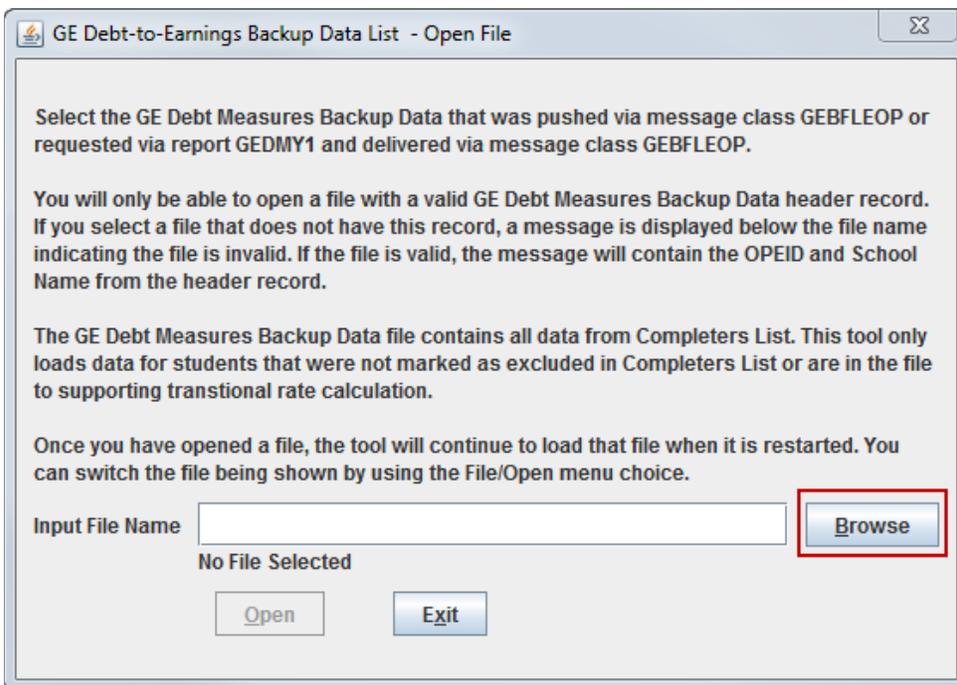

Obtain software by right clicking on the link in the GE Resources page and saving it in a secure manner on your local machine or network. The software will need to be able to access the Gainful Employment Debt Measures Backup Data files sent via SAIG, so they should either be saved on the same computer or within the same secure network.

Once the software has been downloaded from IFAP, and the GE Debt Measures Backup Data downloaded from your SAIG mailbox, you are ready to begin by clicking on the software. Note: You will need to have Java™ in order to use this software.

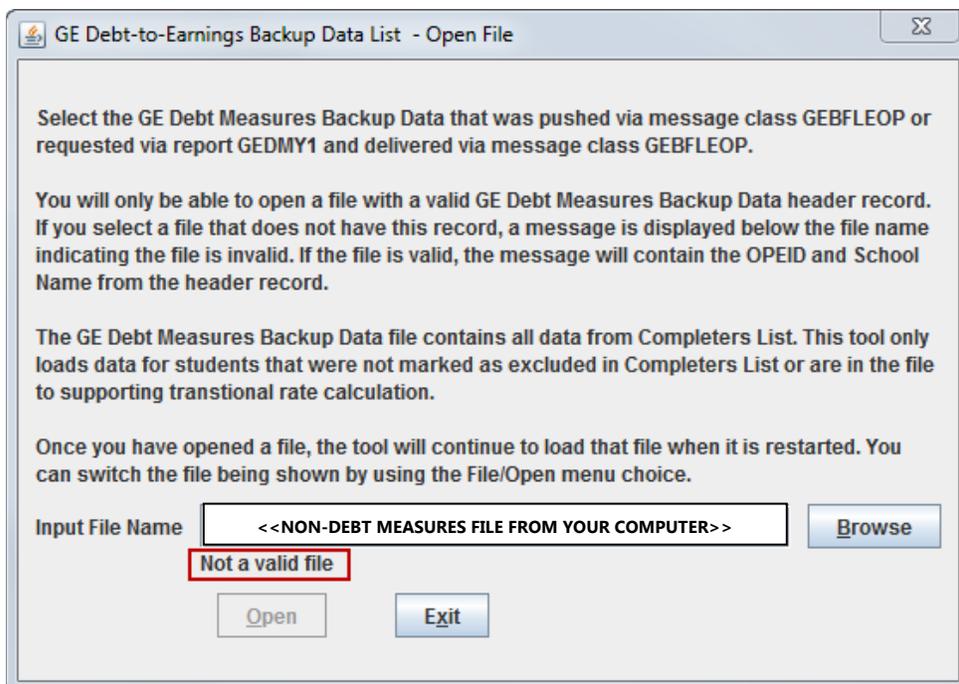

The software will open and the screen below will appear.

Select the Browse button to locate the GE Debt Measures Backup Data file. This file can either be the file that was pushed to your SAIG mailbox or the one requested via report GEDMY1. Both files utilize the same format. For more information regarding the file format, please see the Gainful Employment User Guide.

After selecting the Browse button, use the Browse function to search for the Debt Measures Backup Data file, and click Open. Should a file that is not the correct file be selected, you will receive a message that indicates that the file is not valid. Simply select the Browse button again and use the Browse function to search for the correct file.

You will know that you have located the correct file when the OPEID and name of your school appear below the Input File Name box. Click Open and the software will initiate.

Note: When returning to the software after your initial session, you will not have to browse and locate the file.

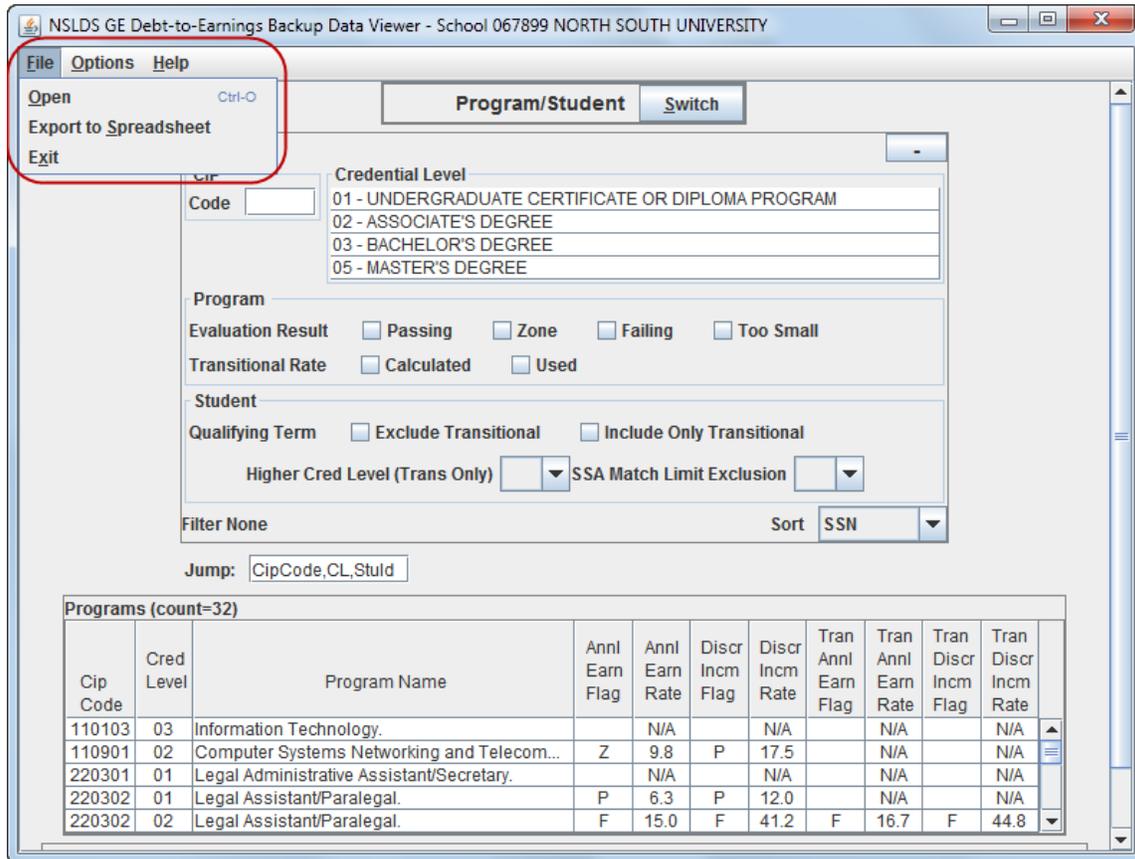

3. Getting to Know the GE Debt-to-Earnings Viewer

Once you have located and opened your GE Debt Measures Backup Data file, you are ready to begin viewing the data. There are two distinct ways of viewing the data in the Viewer. The first is by Program/Student. The second is by Student/Program. You can switch between views by clicking the Switch button. Each view has the same Filter sections, which utilize the same functions.

Menu Bar Overview

Several features unique to the Viewer are available under the File menu item. You can use the Open function to go back to the Open screen allowing you to select a new file, or use the Export to Spreadsheet feature to create a spreadsheet of your GE Debt Measures Backup Data. You can also use the Exit option to close the software.

See Chapter 5 for detailed information regarding the Export to Spreadsheet feature.

Various customizations can be made to the tool prior to use. Under the Options menu item you can alter the way dates are presented under Date Format. CCYY-MM-DD is the default presentation for all dates.

By selecting MM/DD/CCYY all dates within the Viewer will be converted to this format. (Note: this is for viewing purposes only, the data within the GE Debt Measures Backup Data file is not altered when this Option is used.)

Also under the Options menu item is the ability to determine which files are opened, under Open Prior File at Start. In the event that you will be using the GEDMY1 report to review your records, rather than the "pushed" file, this option will allow you to receive the Open box each time you start the software, and allow you to select a different file to work with. The default for this feature is No, allowing the most recently opened file to automatically be used, rather than selected.

Under the Help menu item are the Help Contents, GE Support, and Technical Support. Each of these items will provide you with reference information regarding the tool, or who to contact for a variety of different types of questions.

5. Export to Spreadsheet

NSLDS has created a function within the GE Debt-to-Earnings Viewer tool that will allow you to export your Gainful Employment Debt Measures Backup Data file to a spreadsheet.

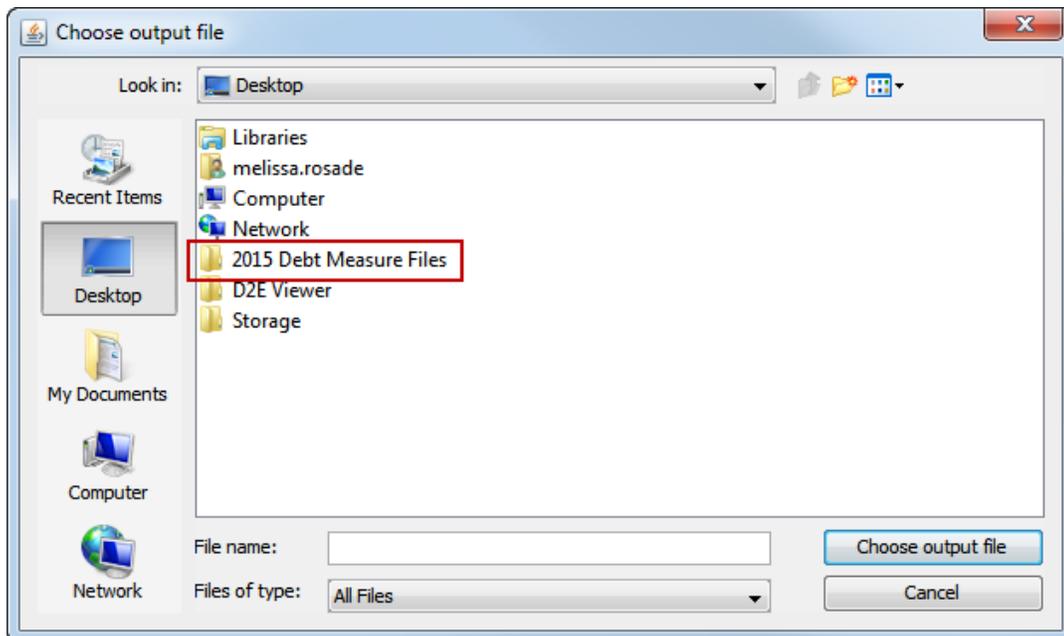

The screenshot shows the NSLDS GE Debt-to-Earnings Backup Data Viewer interface for School 067899 NORTH SOUTH UNIVERSITY. The 'File' menu is open, and the 'Export to Spreadsheet' option is highlighted. A red arrow points from this menu item to the 'Export to Spreadsheet' button in the main window. The main window contains various filter options for CIP Code, Credential Level, Program, Evaluation Result, Transitional Rate, Student, and Qualifying Term. Below the filters is a table of student data with columns for SSN, Name, Date of Birth, Used in A Transition Rate, Has SSA Exclusion, Has Higher Cred, and Total Debt Amt.

Selecting the Export to Spreadsheet option opens a window in which you can request the export.

The Browse button will allow you to search for a folder in which the export is to be stored upon execution. The folder must already be created in order for the Browse feature to locate it.

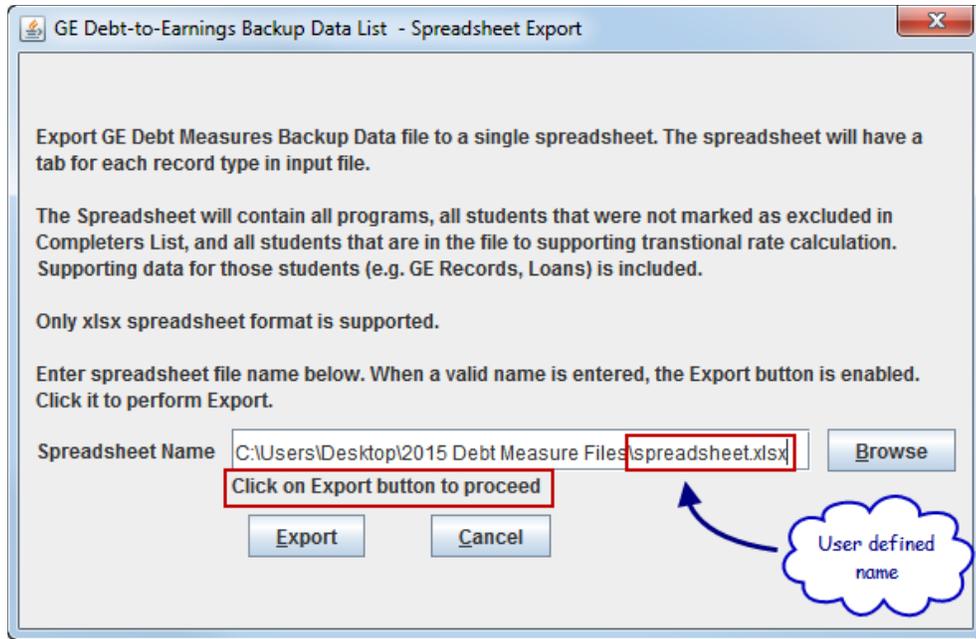

Note: this folder name is an example ONLY and the tool does not require the folder to follow this naming convention.

You do not have to use the browse feature. If you happen to know the name of the directory, it can be typed directly into the Spreadsheet Name field. However, should a non-existent directory be typed, you will receive a message that indicates that the Target Directory does not exist.

Simply select the Browse button again and use the Browse function to search for the correct directory, or correct the directory name by typing.

Once the directory name is accurate, you will need to create a name for the spreadsheet file to be created under. There are no restrictions to the naming convention of the spreadsheet, aside from those that currently exist on your computer. Once a valid name is entered into the dialogue box, the message Click on Export button to proceed will be visible.

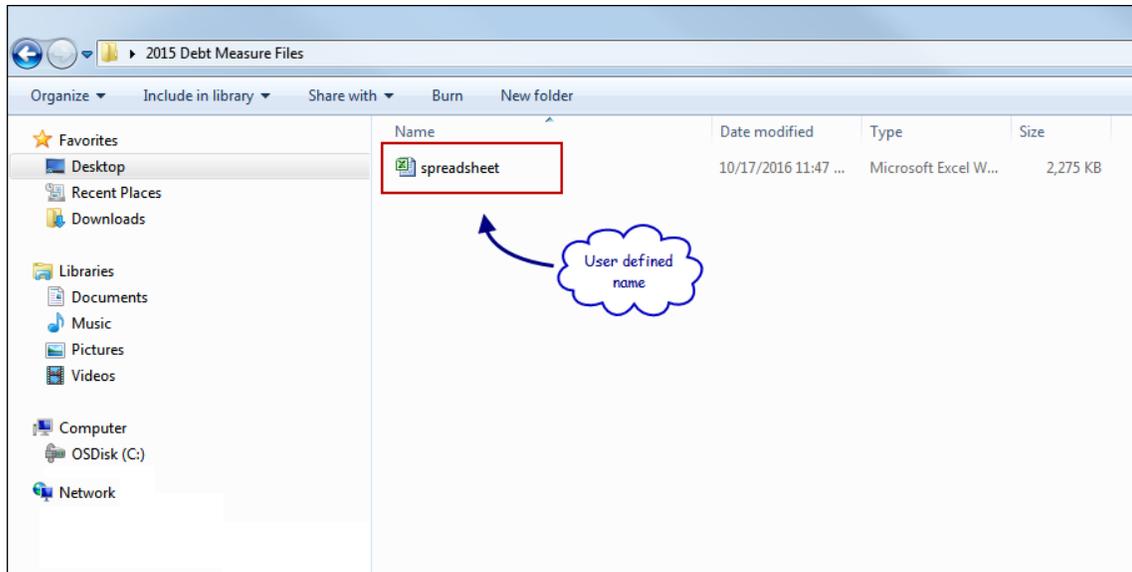

At this point you are ready to export your file by clicking on Export. In the event that you do longer to desire to export the data Cancel will close the Spreadsheet Export window.

Once the export has been created to the requested directory an informational message will appear informing you that the export has completed.

Once the message is visible click OK to close the dialogue box, and proceed to the directory on your computer to view the exported spreadsheet.

Note: The spreadsheet will NOT automatically open on your desktop once the export has been completed, nor will the spreadsheet software. You have to go to the directory that was previously identified and click on the file.

Clicking on the file name opens the spreadsheet software you have defined for the .xlsx file extension and the spreadsheet file.

All record types in the GE Debt Measures are not used in the evaluation of the GE Debt-to-Earnings rates. Some of them are there for the GE Debt-to-Earnings evaluation. These record types, while they appear in the GE Debt Measures Backup Data file, are not present in the spreadsheet export. Only record types utilized in the rate evaluation will be present in the file. There is also no trailer record present in the export.

Columns indicated as Filler are also not present in the file. For more information on these columns, please refer to Appendix D the Gainful Employment User Guide found on the Information for Financial Aid Professionals website under Resources.

NSLDS has added the SSN to the end of the following Record Types in the spreadsheet export:

- GE Record (15)
- Loan Record (20)
- Loan other GE Record (25)
- Loan Enrollment Record (35)

This variation from the file layout is added for the convenience of those who may like to import the results of the spreadsheet export into a database tool such as Access or other database tool. This field will allow you to link the record types together.
