2007-2008 SAR Comment Codes and Text

Overview

The 2007-2008 SAR Comment Codes and Text document serves as a stand-alone guide, as well as a companion to the 2007-2008 Electronic Data Exchange (EDE) Technical Reference.

Please refer to this document for information on comment codes and text, including:

- 2007-2008 Student Aid Report (SAR) Comment Text
- 2007-2008 SAR Acknowledgement Comment Text

We have not included the Web versions of the SAR comment text in this guide because they are very similar to the SAR comment text. The only differences are wording changes that make the comments relevant to the Web version of the SAR rather than to the paper form or printed (electronic) ISIR. For example, the text for a SAR comment code may describe printed information, whereas the equivalent Web comment code describes a Web page displaying the information.

How Do the Comment Codes and Text Work?

The Central Processing System (CPS) adds comment codes and text to the student's transaction to provide information to the student and to you about the student's processed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The comment codes and text are printed on paper SARs and on ISIRs printed from EDEXpress or other financial aid software you may use. Each comment code is three digits and can be found in positions 1737 to 1796 in the ISIR file. Comment codes and text are also printed on SAR Acknowledgements.

How Do I Use These Tables?

The following tables list all the CPS comment codes. The SAR table comprises five columns. In the first column, we have listed the comment codes numerically. In the second column, you will find the comment text that is printed on SARs and on printed ISIRs. In the third column, we describe changes to the comment text. In the fourth column, we indicate whether or not a C code is set. The CPS typically generates a C code when database match results require resolution by the school. The CPS also generates a C code if an applicant's response to drug question 31 requires resolution or FAA action. If there is a reject code associated with a comment code, we list the reject code in column five.

Note: The SAR Acknowledgement table only contains the comment code number, comment code definition, and changes.

Where Can I Find More Information About ISIRs?

The 2007-2008 ISIR Guide is designed to assist FAAs with interpreting student information from ISIRs. The 2007-2008 ISIR Guide will be available in November on the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid Download (FSAdownload) Web site located at fsadownload.ed.gov as well as on the Information for Financial Aid Professionals (IFAP) Web site, located at ifap.ed.gov.

Changes to the Comment Codes

SAR Comment Code Changes

On February 8, 2006 President Bush signed the Higher Education Reconciliation Act of 2005 (the HERA), Pub. L. 109-171. As a result, we implemented many operational changes to our student aid processes and procedures during the 2006-2007 year and updated our comments. The HERA is described in Dear Colleague Letter GEN-06-05, and the changes that were implemented are described in our updated 2006-2007 documentation. Please see the Higher Education Reconciliation Act of 2005 \(HERA\) Information link on the IFAP (ifap.ed.gov) home page for more information.

For 2007-2008 we will continue to use comment codes 267 through 271 that were introduced to notify students that they may qualify for the Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG). Comment code 119, which was used in 2006-2007 to inform dependent students serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training that they may be considered independent when applying for federal student aid, will be dropped for 2007-2008. We have added a new dependency question to the 2007-2008 FAFSA to enable students who are serving on active duty to notify us, and as a result, there is no need to continue using comment code 119.

All comment text was updated to include changes to year references, item numbers, and changes to edits.

New Comments

We added the following comments for 2007-2008 as a result of the HERA and edit changes: 126, 131, 163, 174, 240 to 244, 246 to 250, and 261 to 266. The new comments are briefly described in the following table.

053	You left Item 31 blank. Your failure to provide an answer to this question makes you ineligible to receive federal student aid. Either indicate that you have not been convicted of possessing or selling illegal drugs for an offense that occurred while you were receiving federal student aid (such as grants, loans, and work-study), or use the enclosed worksheet to determine your answer to this question. In any case, you can correct this item by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243) or by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov . You can also use your SAR. Please understand that a drug conviction does not necessarily disqualify you from receiving student aid.	Updated the comment to clarify when the offense occurred	Y
054	You reported a '2' in response to Item 31. This indicates that you are ineligible for federal student aid for part of the 2007-2008 school year. The period of ineligibility resulting from your drug-related conviction(s) ends on or after July 1, 2007.
