Renewal FAFSA

2005-2006 School Year

FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID

We Help Put America Through School

OMB No. 1845-0001

Do not send in this application before January 1, 2005.

Applying by the Deadlines

Use this Renewal FAFSA to apply for federal and state student grants, work-study and loans.

For federal aid, submit your application as early as possible, but no earlier than January 1, 2005. We must receive your application no later than June 30, 2006. Your college must have your correct, complete information by your last day of enrollment in the 2005-2006 school year.

For state or college aid, the deadline may be as early as January 2005. See the table on page 2 for state deadlines. You may also need to complete additional forms. Check with your high school guidance counselor or a financial aid administrator at your college about state and college sources of student aid and deadlines.

Using Your Tax Return

If you are filing a 2004 federal income tax return, we recommend that you complete the tax return before filling out this form. If you have not yet filed your return, you can still submit your Renewal FAFSA but you must provide income and tax data. Once you file your tax return, you must correct on your Renewal FAFSA any income or tax data that changed.

Filling Out Your Renewal FAFSA

Because the Renewal FAFSA contains preprinted information that you reported to us for the 2004-2005 school year, it is faster and easier for you to use than the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Review your answers from last year. Enter new or updated information if your previous answer has changed or was incorrect. If your answer from last year that is printed on the application is still correct, you do not need to write anything for that question. Refer to the notes in this booklet as necessary.

Some questions, such as information about your 2004 income, may not have your information from last year printed in them. For these questions, which have arrows by them, you must give us new information.

If you or your family has unusual circumstances (such as loss of employment), complete and submit this form as instructed and then consult with the financial aid office at the college you plan to attend.

Mailing Your Renewal FAFSA

After you complete this application, make a copy of it for your records. Then mail the original form and return postcard in the enclosed envelope or to the address printed on the application.

If you do not receive the results of your application—a Student Aid Report (SAR)—within four weeks, please check online at www.fafsa.ed.gov or call 1-800-433-3243. If you provided your e-mail address in question 13, you will receive information about your application within a few days after we process it.

Renewal FAFSA on the Web

You can submit your 2005-2006 Renewal FAFSA online. To start:

1. Know your PIN

To file your Renewal FAFSA on the Web, you will need a special code called a PIN, which we mailed to you when you applied last year. If you don't have your PIN, you can request another copy by going to www.pin.ed.gov and selecting the link "PIN Request and Information."

2. Access Your Information

With your PIN, you can electronically access your information at www.fafsa.ed.gov

Processing is free, secure and generally completed 7-14 days faster than if you filled out and mailed a paper application. You should file as soon as possible but not before January 1, 2005.

Step One

You (the Student)

13. E-mail address

We will use this e-mail address to correspond with you. Once your application is processed, you will receive an e-mail from the U.S. Department of Education that includes a secure link to your Student Aid Report (SAR) on the FAFSA on the Web site. We will only share your e-mail address with the schools you list on the form and with your state. They may use the address to communicate with you. Leave blank to receive information through regular mail.

14-15. Are you a U.S. citizen?/Alien Registration Number

Generally, you are an eligible noncitizen if you are: (1) a U.S. permanent resident and you have an Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-551); (2) a conditional permanent resident (I-551C); or (3) an other eligible noncitizen with an Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) from the Department of Homeland Security showing any one of the following designations: "Refugee," "Asylum Granted," "Parolee" (I-94 confirms paroled for a minimum of one year and status has not expired) or "Cuban-Haitian Entrant."

- 28. In addition to grants, are you interested in “work-study” (which you earn through work)?
- 29. What is the highest school your father completed?
- 30. What is the highest school your mother completed?

Question 31 asks whether you have a drug-related conviction that affects your eligibility for federal student financial aid.

Have you ever been convicted of any drug offense? If “No,” enter “1” in the box and go to question 32. If “Yes,” you must complete the enclosed worksheet. If a worksheet is not enclosed, you must call 1-800-433-3243 or go to www.fafsa.ed.gov/q31wksht56.pdf to find out how to fill out this question. You may still be eligible for student aid, even with a drug-related conviction.

Note: On your Renewal FAFSA, this question may appear out of order at the bottom of the first page, between questions 15 and 16.

Step Two Student (and Spouse) Income and Assets

- 32. For 2004, have you (the student) completed your income tax return?
- 33. What income tax return did you file or will you file for 2004?
- If you filed or will file a foreign tax return, or a tax return with Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or Palau, use the information from that return to fill out this form. If you filed a foreign return, convert all figures to U.S. dollars, using the exchange rate that is in effect today. Go to www.federalreserve.gov/releases/h10/update to view the daily exchange rate.
- 34. If you have filed or will file a 1040, were you eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ?
- In general, you are eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ if you make less than $100,000, do not itemize deductions, do not receive income from your own business or farm, and do not receive alimony. You are not eligible if you itemize deductions, receive self-employment income or alimony, or are required to file Schedule D for capital gains. If you filed a 1040 only to claim Hope or Lifetime Learning credits, and you would have otherwise been eligible for a 1040A or 1040EZ, you should answer “Yes” to this question.
- 35. What was your (and your spouse’s) adjusted gross income for 2004?
- Adjusted gross income is on IRS Form 1040—line 36; 1040A—line 21; 1040EZ—line 4; or TeleFile—line I.
- 36. Enter the total amount of your (and your spouse’s) income tax for 2004.
- Income tax amount is on IRS Form 1040—line 56; 1040A—line 36; 1040EZ—line 10; or TeleFile—line K(2).

Step Two, continued...

- 37. Enter your (and your spouse's) exemptions for 2004.

Exemptions are on IRS Form 1040—line 6d or on 1040A—line 6d.

For Form 1040EZ, if you answered “Yes” on line 5, use EZ worksheet line F to determine the number of exemptions ($3,100 equals one exemption). If you answered “No” on line 5, enter 01 if you are single or 02 if you are married.

For TeleFilers, use line J(2) to determine the number of exemptions ($3,100 equals one exemption).

- 38-39. How much did you (and your spouse) earn from working in 2004?
Answer this question whether or not you filed a tax return.

This information may be on your W-2 forms, or on IRS Form 1040—lines 7 + 12 + 18; 1040A—line 7; or 1040EZ—line 1. TeleFilers should use their W-2 forms.

- 40-42. Go to pages 6 and 7 of this booklet. Turn the booklet sideways and enter all of the items that apply to you (and your spouse) in the column on the left. Enter the totals in questions 40, 41 and 42. Even though you may have few of these items, check each line carefully.

- 44-45. As of today, what is the net worth of your (and your spouse's) current investments (44) and businesses and/or investment farms (45)? Do not include a farm that you live on and operate.

Net worth means current value minus debt. If net worth is one million dollars or more, enter $999,999. If net worth is negative, enter 0.

Investments include real estate (do not include the home you live in), trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, Coverdell savings accounts, college savings plans, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, etc. Investment value includes the market value of these investments as of today. Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Investments do not include the home you live in, the value of life insurance, retirement plans (pension funds, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.), and prepaid tuition plans, or cash, savings, and checking accounts already reported in 43.

Business and/or investment farm value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, inventory, etc. Business and/or investment farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used as collateral.

- 46. If you receive veterans' education benefits, for how many months from July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2006, will you receive these benefits? Do not include your spouse's veterans' education benefits.

Step Six School Information

Review any college names and addresses preprinted on this form. If you want information to be sent to that same college in 2005-2006, you don't need to change anything. Make sure your housing plans are still correct.

If you do not want information to be sent to a college that is preprinted on this form, fill in the oval marked "Delete this school?" If you do this, you may write in a new college's federal school code. Look for the codes on the Internet at www.fafsa.ed.gov or at your college's Web site, at your college financial aid office, or at your public library. If you cannot get the federal school code, write in the new college's complete name, address, city and state. Also fill in the oval that corresponds to your housing plans.

98. Mark whether you will be full time, 3/4 time, half time, less than half time, or not sure, at the start of the 2005-2006 school year.
