FEDERAL STUDENT AID

We Help Put America Through School

Why did FSA build Student Aid on the Web?

- Students & parents have high expectations for fast, accurate and reliable access to info and services
- Schools wanted to be able to provide students with a web site that would assist students with planning for school, save for school for and attend school
- FSA wanted to streamline service to students to move data faster, with greater accuracy and less reliance upon expensive paper form processes

Student Aid on the Web

Key Web Site Features:

- Student-centered info from the best of the Web
- School search capability
- Financial aid wizard
- Scholarship/Grant search
- College savings calculator
- On-line college admissions with pre-pop
- FAFSA pre-pop

What Might You Need To Do?

- Read Dear Partner Letter (GEN-03-11) dated September 15, 2003
- Decide if you want to update/add your school's information in MyFSA

Federal Student Aid

The Federal Student Aid office has a variety of programs to help you pay for your college education. Find out more about Pell Grants, campus-based aid, Stafford Loans and PLUS Loans (parent loans) here.

Understanding Financial Aid

Our booklets, Funding Your Education and The Student Guide will answer any questions you might still have. Funding Your Education gives an overview of student aid and how to apply and is designed primarily for students below 12th grade. The Student Guide is a comprehensive source of information about the Department's federal student aid programs and includes more detailed information on the application process and student loans, for example. Whatever your questions, you'll find the aid information you need in these publications.

Student Aid Report (SAR)

Have you already filled out the FAFSA and received your Student Aid Report (SAR)? The SAR contains financial aid information critical to your college decisions. Here's some help on understanding your SAR.

Tax Break

You might have heard about the Hope and Lifetime Learning Tax Credits, but what are they exactly? Find out how they affect you by reading IRS Publication 970, Tax Benefits for Education.

State Aid

Even if you're not eligible for federal aid, you might be eligible for financial assistance from your state. Contact your state higher education agency for more information.

Borrowing Responsibly

If you decide to take out a federal student loan to help pay for school, you're taking on certain obligations. Find out what they are and how to maintain your account in good standing.

Preparing

Find out what you need to do to prepare for education beyond high school.

Education beyond high school can give you choices that may not otherwise be possible, open doors to better paying positions and give you the opportunity to do the things you enjoy most. By advancing your education, you can expand your possibilities and increase your career choices.

Financial assistance programs and requirements often vary from school to school. Always check with your school before applying for financial aid.

Students

Assess Yourself

The first step to finding the right program and type of school for you is to evaluate your interests. This self-assessment will help you examine your interests and goals, and offers some ideas about fields of study and careers that might be right for you.

College Savings Calculator :: Screen 3 of 3

When it comes to planning your college education, the cost of attending college should not be your main concern. Do not let cost be the only reason for choosing one institution over another.

Unlike other costly purchases, you can and likely will get help paying for college. This help is typically made up of grants, scholarships, and loans. There is a lot of financial aid available — tens of billions of dollars go out every year — and some of that could be yours.

The FSA Students Portal's Financial Aid Wizard allows you to plan out, in seven easy steps, your entire financial aid packages online! Notice we said "packages" — our wizard will help you find and calculate virtually everything you need for any and all schools you're interested in. It will show you the deadlines for filing financial aid applications for the colleges you select, walk you through scholarship searches, help you estimate your expected family contribution and federal aid, and provide you a tool to interpret and analyze your financial aid award letters.

To use the wizard to your maximum benefit, we recommend you go through the steps in order, starting with Step 1, Estimate Costs.

Required investment amount (annual):	$6,659.83
Required investment amount (monthly):	$554.99

Description

Assess patient health problems and needs, develop and implement nursing care plans, and maintain medical records. Administer nursing care to ill, injured, convalescent, or disabled patients. May advise patients on health maintenance and disease prevention or provide case management. Licensing or registration required. Includes advance practice nurses such as: nurse practitioners, clinical nurse specialists, certified nurse midwives, and certified registered nurse anesthetists. Advanced practice nursing is practiced by RNs who have specialized formal, post-basic education and who function in highly autonomous and specialized roles.

Experience

A minimum of two to four years of work-related skill, knowledge, or experience is needed for these occupations. For example, an accountant must complete four years of college and work for several years in accounting to be considered qualified.

Education

Most of these occupations require a four-year bachelor's degree, but some do not.

Training

Employees in these occupations usually need several years of work-related experience, on-the-job training, and/or vocational training.

Tasks

- Provides health care, first aid, and immunization in facilities such as schools, hospitals, and industry.
- Observes patient's skin color, dilation of pupils, and computerized equipment to monitor vital signs.

Technical Help

Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to qualify for aid through the federal government.

- FAFSA forms should be available in your guidance office by late fall.
- You can file the FAFSA anytime after January 1 of the year you will enter college, but we recommend you file it no later than February 15 (remember, using estimated income figures is OK).
- Want to do it now?
  1. Take me to the FAFSA on the Web transfer form where MyFSA data will be transferred to and automatically fill approximately one third of the Department of Education's FAFSA on the Web. Then return me to FSA Students Portal.
  2. Take me to www.fafsa.ed.gov where I will enter my data manually.
- Be sure all the required signatures accompany the application.
