How to Resolve Duplicate Overpayment Debts Reported to NSLDS - Please click on Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) above and select number 20.
We have identified a small number of duplicate overpayment debts in NSLDS. These duplicates show the same overpayment as being held by a school and also by the Department's Debt Collection Service (DCS). They occur when the identifiers for the overpayment are not properly reported and matched. We are evaluating why these duplicate overpayments are being created so that this problem can be prevented in the future. In the meantime, we do not want a student to be unduly penalized. The method described in number 20 of the FAQs is the fastest and most efficient way to update a student's record if he or she is being denied aid as a result of a duplicate overpayment debt.

About the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS)
1. What is NSLDS?
The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the national database of information about loans and grants awarded to students under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1964. NSLDS provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and grants during their complete life cycle, from aid approval through disbursement, repayment, delinquency and closure.
Return to top of page
2. Where does the data come from?
The Department of Education data sources include the:
• Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP), for information on defaulted federal student loans
• Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP), for information on Federal Direct Student Loans
• Federal Pell Grant Program, for Pell Grant information
• Central Processing System (CPS), for applicant information
• Guaranty Agencies, Schools, and Lenders, for information on students, loans, and grants
