2005-2006 SAR/ISIR Comment Codes and Text

Overview

The 2005-2006 SAR/ISIR Comment Codes and Text document serves as a stand-alone guide, as well as a companion to the 2005-2006 EDE Technical Reference.

Please refer to this document for information on comment codes and text, including:

- 2005-2006 SAR Comment Text

- 2005-2006 SAR Acknowledgement Comment Text

- 2005-2006 ISIR Comment Text

We have not included the Web versions of the SAR and ISIR comment text in this guide because they are very similar to the paper SAR and electronic ISIR comment text. The only differences are wording changes that make the comments relevant to the Web version of the SAR or ISIR rather than to the paper form or printed (electronic) ISIR respectively. For example, the comment code text for the paper SAR describes printing the information on the SAR, whereas the Web comment code describes displaying the information.

How Do I Use These Tables?

The following tables list all the CPS comment codes. The SAR table and the ISIR table are comprised of five columns. In the first column, we have listed the comment codes numerically. In the second column, you will find the comment text that is printed on SARs and on printed ISIRs. In the third column, we describe changes to the comment code text. In the fourth column, we indicate if a C code is set. The CPS typically generates a C code when data match results require financial aid administrators (FAA) resolution. However, the CPS also generates a C code if an applicant's response to drug question 31 requires resolution or FAA action. If there is a reject code associated with a comment code, we list the reject code in column five.

Note: The SAR Acknowledgement table only contains the comment code number, changes, and the comment code definition.

How Are Comment Codes Assigned?

The CPS adds comment codes to the student's transaction to provide information to the student and to you about the student's processed FAFSA.

How Do The ISIR Comment Codes Work?

The 2005-2006 ISIR comment text is used for ISIRs printed from EDExpress, another financial aid software package, or your internal ISIR print program. The electronic ISIR file, sent to the school, contains the comment code numbers that print on the ISIR. Each ISIR comment code is three digits and can be found in positions 1677-1736 in the ISIR file. Comment codes are also printed on SAR Acknowledgements.

Where Can I Find More Information About ISIRs?

The 2005-2006 ISIR Guide is designed to assist FAAs with interpreting student information from an ISIR. The 2005-2006 ISIR Guide will be posted, and if necessary, updated and reposted to the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid Download (FSAdownload) Web site located at fsadownload.ed.gov as well as on the Information for Financial Aid Professionals (IFAP) Web site, located at ifap.ed.gov.

Changes to the Comment Codes

SAR and ISIR Comment Code Changes

New Comments

We added comment codes 040, 044, 051, 071, 081, 083, 084, 088, 091, 092, 093, 096, 098, 137, 140, 164.

We added the new comments to correspond with the new rejects, master death file match with SSA, and edit changes.

Deleted Comments

Comment codes 262 and 263 were deleted because they were consolidated into comments 256 and 257 respectively. We deleted comments 163 and 174 because of changes to edits with the VA match.

Modified Comments

We modified the text in comment codes 061, 064, 094, 156, 157, 162, 172, 173, 180, 215, 256, and 257.

The dates and year references were incremented in comment codes 054, 056, 070, 078, 085, 087, 095, 097, 125, 127, 128, and 160. , 162, 163, 173, 174, and 180.

SAR Acknowledgement Comment Code Changes

We incremented the dates and year references in comment codes 1, 3, and 9.

SAR C Code

The following comments are associated with the SAR C codes:

10, 20, 30, 33, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 46, 53, 54, 56, 57, 58, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 77, 79,86, 90, 100, 101, 102, 105, 107, 109, 115, 116, 124, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 138, 141, 142, 144, 146, 162, 173, 180, 254, 256, and 260.

002	This SAR reflects your Financial Aid Administrator's (FAA's) use of professional judgement.
003	This SAR shows corrections to your data that we previously entered incorrectly.
004	This SAR has been produced due to a change in your financial aid history information in the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) that may affect your eligibility for federal student aid.
005	We were unable to read all of the information on your application or SAR because it was damaged. Please review all of the items on this SAR and make any corrections as needed.
006	If you need to make corrections to your information, you may make them on the web at www.fafsa.ed.gov or by using this SAR. You must use your PIN to access your record online. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) or the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). If your address changes, make the correction online, send in the correction on your SAR, or call 1-800-4-FED-AID and ask a customer service representative to make the change for you.
007	As we previously indicated, your father's date of birth in Item 60 does not match his date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for his SSN. If his SSN or date of birth is incorrect, you need to make a correction. If his SSN and date of birth are correct, your father should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct their records.
008	As we previously indicated, your mother's date of birth in Item 64 does not match her date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for her SSN. If her SSN or date of birth is incorrect, you need to make a correction. If her SSN and date of birth are correct, your mother should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct their records.

009	We cannot process your application further because of issues raised by terms of the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. For information on how to proceed, you must contact us within 30 days from the date of this letter by telephone at 202-377-3243.			19
010	For additional information about your FSEOG overpayment, your Financial Aid Administrator must access NSLDS.		Y
011	The Social Security Administration (SSA) did not confirm that the social security number you reported for your father on your financial aid application is valid. If you believe that the number you reported is correct, your father should contact the SSA. If the social security number is incorrect, you need to make the necessary correction.			6
012	The Social Security Administration (SSA) did not confirm that the social security number you reported for your mother on your financial aid application is valid. If you believe that the number you reported is correct, your mother should contact the SSA. If the social security number is incorrect, you need to make the necessary correction.			7
013	You cannot change your social security number because the Social Security Administration already verified that this social security number belongs to you.
014	The Social Security Administration (SSA) confirmed that the social security number you reported for your mother on your financial aid application is valid, but did not confirm the social security number you reported for your father. If you believe that the number you reported for your father is correct, your father should contact the SSA. If the social security number is incorrect, you need to make the necessary correction.
015	The Social Security Administration (SSA) confirmed that the social security number you reported for your father on your financial aid application is valid, but did not confirm the social security number you reported for your mother. If you believe that the number you reported for your mother is correct, your mother should contact the SSA. If the social security number is incorrect, you need to make the necessary correction.

016	Your father's date of birth as reported on your application does not match his date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for his SSN. You should correct his SSN (Item 57) or his date of birth (Item 60). If his date of birth is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Item 60. If you confirm your father's date of birth, your father should also contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records.			S
017	Your mother's date of birth as reported on your application does not match her date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for her SSN. You should correct her SSN (Item 61) or her date of birth (Item 64). If her date of birth is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Item 64. If you confirm your mother's date of birth, your mother should also contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records.			T
018	You must provide your date of birth in Item 9.			5
019	The date of birth you reported for your mother on your application matches the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records, but the date of birth you reported for your father does not match SSA's records. Your father should review the date of birth in Item 60 and either confirm the date you have reported or make the necessary correction.
020	To resolve your Pell overpayment, your Financial Aid Administrator must access NSLDS for additional Pell overpayment information.		Y
021	The date of birth you reported for your father on your application matches the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records, but the date of birth you reported for your mother does not match SSA's records. Your mother should review the date of birth in Item 64 and either confirm the date you have reported or make the necessary correction.
022	The name you reported for your father on your application doesn't match the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records. If the name you reported in Items 58 and 59 is correct, contact SSA. If it is incorrect, you need to make the necessary corrections.
023	It appears that the social security number you reported on your application is not valid. Review the number you reported in Item 8 and make the necessary correction.			P
024	The Social Security Administration (SSA) did not confirm that the social security number you reported on your financial aid application is valid. If you believe that the number you reported is correct, contact the SSA. If the social security number is incorrect, you should submit a new application with the correct social security number.			18

025	The name you reported for your mother on your application doesn't match the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records. If the name you reported in Items 62 and 63 is correct, contact SSA. If it is incorrect, you need to make the necessary corrections.
026	If you want to register with Selective Service, you may answer "Yes" to both Items 21 and 22 on this SAR, complete a Selective Service registration form at your local post office, or register online at www.sss.gov. Selective Service will not process your registration until 30 days before your 18th birthday.
027	According to Social Security Administration (SSA) records, the social security number (SSN) you provided for your father in Item 57 belongs to a deceased person. Please review your answer to Item 57 and make a correction if necessary.
028	We have forwarded your name to Selective Service for registration, as you requested. They will process your registration request 30 days prior to your 18th birthday.
029	According to Social Security Administration (SSA) records, the social security number (SSN) you provided for your mother in Item 61 belongs to a deceased person. Please review your answer to Item 61 and make a correction if necessary.
030	The Selective Service reported that you have not registered with them. If you are female or were born before 1960, registration is not required. Otherwise, if you have not yet registered, are male, and are 18 through 25 years of age, to receive aid you must answer "Yes" to both Items 21 and 22 on this SAR, complete a Selective Service registration form at your local post office, or register online at www.sss.gov. If you believe you have already registered or are exempt, please contact the Selective Service at 847-688-6888.		Y
031	We have forwarded your name to Selective Service for registration, as you requested.
032	The number you have reported for your parents' number of family members is significantly different than the number you reported on your application last year. Review Item 65 and make a correction if necessary.

033	We could not send your name to Selective Service as you requested because you did not give us enough information, you are outside the age range for registration, or you did not sign your form. If you are at least 18 but not yet 26, you may register by answering "Yes" to both Items 21 and 22 on this SAR. You must also provide information for Items 1, 2, and 9. You may also register by completing a Selective Service registration form, available at your local post office, or by registering online at www.sss.gov. If you are a male who has reached age 26, you cannot use the SAR to register. You must contact Selective Service at 847-688-6888 to resolve your registration status before you can receive federal student aid. You are exempt from registering if born before 1960.		Y
034	The number you have reported for your parents' number of family members in college is significantly greater than the number you reported on your application last year. Review Item 66 and make a correction if necessary.
035	The amount you have reported for your parents' income is significantly less than the amount you reported on your application last year. Review Items 73 and 76 through 79 and make any necessary corrections.
036	The amount you have reported for your parents' taxes paid is significantly greater than the amount you reported on your application last year. Review Item 74 and make a correction if necessary.
037	Certain post-baccalaureate students enrolled in teaching credential programs may be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant.
038	To resolve your Pell overpayment, your Financial Aid Administrator must contact the school associated with the Pell overpayment.		Y
039	To resolve your Pell overpayments, your Financial Aid Administrator must access NSLDS for additional Pell overpayment information.		Y
040	Your father's name as reported on your application does not match his name in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for his SSN. You should correct his SSN (Item 57) or his name (Items 58 and 59). If his name is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Items 58 and 59. If you confirm your father's name, your father should also contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records.	Added comment 040		E
041	To resolve your Pell overpayment, call the U.S. Department of Education at 1-800-621-3115, or write to the U.S. Department of Education, P.O. Box 4222, Iowa City, Iowa 52245.		Y

If his SSN and Items 58 and 59 are correct, your father should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct their records.	Added comment 044
045	You have reported a social security number for your father and mother but have also reported that their marital status is not married. You should only report the social security number for the parent or stepparent whose financial information has been reported on your application.
046	The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) did not confirm your statement that you are an eligible noncitizen. You must submit proof of your noncitizen eligibility to your school. If you fail to submit proof within 30 days, or longer if your school allows, you may not be eligible for federal student aid.		Y
047	There are issues with your application information that need to be resolved before your eligibility can be determined. Read this letter carefully and review any items printed in darker print on this SAR. If you need to make corrections on this SAR, you and your parent must sign the certification at the end before you send it back to us.
048	You have reported a social security number for your parent that is the same as yours.
049	You must report a valid social security number, name, and date of birth for your father or mother. If your parent does not have a social security number, you should correct Item 57 and/or 61 to all zeroes.			9

051	Your mother's name as reported on your application does not match her name in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for her SSN. You should correct her SSN (Item 61) or her name (Items 62 and 63). If her name is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Items 62 and 63. If you confirm your mother's name, your mother should also contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records.	Added comment 051		F
052	Your answer to Item 31 has changed since you filed your initial application.
053	You left Item 31 blank. Your failure to provide an answer to this question makes you ineligible to receive Title IV federal student aid. Either indicate that you have never been convicted of possessing or selling illegal drugs or use the enclosed worksheet to determine your answer to this question. In any case, you can correct this item by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243) or by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov. You can also use your SAR. Please understand that a drug conviction does not necessarily disqualify you from receiving student aid.		Y
054	You reported a '2' in response to Item 31. This indicates that you are ineligible for federal student aid for part of the 2005-2006 school year. Your period of ineligibility resulting from your drug-related conviction(s) ends on or after July 1, 2005 but before June 30, 2006. You should contact your FAA when your ineligibility period ends so that he or she can determine if you may receive federal funds during the 2005-2006 award year.	Incremented years	Y
055	Your denial of benefits under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 has been resolved and processing of your student aid application may continue.
056	You reported in Item 31 that you have been convicted of an illegal drug offense. Use the enclosed worksheet to determine if your conviction(s) affect your eligibility for federal student aid. If you determine that your conviction(s) do not affect your eligibility for federal student aid, or affect it for only part of the 2005-2006 school year, you must correct Item 31 by using your SAR. You can also correct this item or get additional help with this question by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). YOU ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID WHILE YOUR ANSWER TO ITEM 31 IS '3'. Whether or not your conviction(s) affect your eligibility for federal student aid, you may still be eligible to receive state, school, or other non-federal student aid.	Incremented years	Y

057	Selective Service did not register you because you did not answer "Yes" to Item 21. If you want to register, answer "Yes" to BOTH Items 21 and 22 on this SAR, complete a Selective Service registration form at your local post office, or register online at www.sss.gov.		Y
058	You reported in Item 31 that you are not eligible for federal student aid as a result of a drug-related conviction, or that you do not know if your conviction(s) affect your eligibility. You may still be eligible to receive state, school, or other non-federal student aid. If you determine that you have incorrectly answered this question, you must correct Item 31 by using your SAR. You can also correct this item or get help with this question by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).		Y
059	The Social Security Administration could not determine if the social security number you reported belongs to you because you did not give us your last name and/or date of birth. Review these items and make the necessary corrections.
060	The date of birth you reported on your application does not match the date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for your SSN. You should correct your SSN (Item 8) or your date of birth (Item 9). If your date of birth is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Item 9. If you confirm your date of birth, you should also contact the SSA to make sure they correct it in their records.			R
061	The name you reported on your application does not match the name in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for your SSN. You should correct your SSN (Item 8) or name (Items 1 and 2). If your name is correct, you need to confirm it by re-entering it in Items 1 and 2. If you confirm your name, you should also contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records.	Modified text, removed C code, and added reject D		D
062	The Social Security Administration could not confirm your claim of U.S. citizenship because of questions about your social security number, name, or date of birth.	Added reject code 18		18
063	As we previously indicated, the date of birth you reported on your application in Item 9 does not match the date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for your SSN. If either your SSN or date of birth is incorrect, you need to make a correction. If your SSN and date of birth are correct, you should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct it in their records. 1	Incremented year	Thank you for submitting your information for federal student aid to the U.S. Department of Education. This is your Student Aid Report (SAR) Acknowledgement for the 2005-2006 award year. Keep a copy of this SAR Acknowledgement for your records. We have processed your application for federal student aid or the correction that you submitted electronically through your school or on the Web. On the back of this page we printed the information we received and a summary of the results of processing that information. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for the items on the back of the page. You can make corrections by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov and using your PIN, or by contacting your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) if: • the assumptions we made are not correct, • you need to make other corrections, or • we indicate below that more information is needed to determine your eligibility. Contact your FAA if: • we indicate below you are selected for verification, or • we indicate below you must work with your FAA to resolve some eligibility issues.
2		You need to give us more information before we can determine your eligibility for federal student aid.
3	Incremented year	If all the information on this SAR Acknowledgement is correct, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid in 2005-2006. Your FAA will determine what types of aid and how much you are eligible to receive.
4		You may not be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant because you reported that you have a Bachelor's degree or are working on a degree beyond a bachelor's degree. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.

5		Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.
6		Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you.
7		There are data matching issues that resulted from processing your application. You can review information about these issues by going to Student Access on the web at www.fafsa.ed.gov. You must work with your FAA to resolve any data matching issues before the FAA can determine if you are eligible to receive federal student aid.
8		You must work with your FAA to resolve your response to Question 31 before the FAA can determine if you are eligible to receive federal student aid.
9	Modified date	Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your information, contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrections no later than September XX, 2006.

002	This ISIR reflects your Financial Aid Administrator's (FAA's) use of professional judgement.
003	This ISIR shows corrections to your data that was previously entered incorrectly.
004	This ISIR has been produced due to a change in your financial aid history information in the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) that may affect your eligibility for federal student aid.
005	We were unable to read all of the information on your application or SAR because it was damaged. Please review all of the items on this ISIR and make any corrections as needed.
006	If you need to make corrections to your information, you may make them on the web at www.fafsa.ed.gov. You must use your PIN to access your record online. If you need help with your ISIR, contact your school Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) or the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). If your address changes, make the correction online, contact your school, or call 1-800-4-FED-AID and ask a customer service representative to make the change for you.
007	As we previously indicated, your father's date of birth does not match his date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for his SSN. If his SSN or date of birth is incorrect, you need to make a correction. If his SSN and date of birth are correct, your father should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct their records.
008	As we previously indicated, your mother's date of birth does not match her date of birth in the Social Security Administration's (SSA) records for her SSN. If her SSN or date of birth is incorrect, you need to make a correction. If her SSN and date of birth are correct, your mother should contact the SSA to make sure that they correct their records.
009	We cannot process your application further because of issues raised by terms of the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. For information on how to proceed, you must contact us within 30 days from the date of this letter by telephone at 202-377-3243.			19
