SAR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Student's Comment Text

- 01 We have processed your application for Federal student aid, or the correction that you submitted electronically through your school. On the back of this page we printed the information we received and a summary of the results of processing that information. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for Federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for those items on the back of this page. Contact your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) if:
- the assumptions we made are not correct,
  - you need to make other corrections,
  - we indicate below that we need more information to determine your eligibility,
  - we indicate below you are selected for verification, or
  - we indicate below you must work with your FAA to resolve some eligibility issues.
- 02 You need to give us more information before we can determine your eligibility for Federal student aid.
- 03 If all the information on this Student Aid Report is correct, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other Federal student aid in 1999-2000. Your FAA will determine whether you meet all other requirements to receive aid. The amount of aid will depend on the cost of attendance at your school, your enrollment status, Congressional budget restrictions, and other factors.
- 04 You are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant because you reported that you have a Bachelor's degree or are a graduate/professional student. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.
- 05 Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.
- 06 Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. You must submit to your school signed copies of certain 1998 documents.
- 07 You must work with your FAA to resolve data matching issues that resulted from processing your application before the FAA can determine if you are eligible to receive Federal financial aid.
- 08 You must resolve some issues before we can determine your eligibility for Federal student aid. Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your Student Aid Report (SAR), contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrected SAR no later than August 15, 2000.

Therefore, we cannot determine whether the changes made were student corrections or FAA adjustments.
- 46 We could not process your FAA's request to perform or cancel a DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE. Your FAA did not provide the necessary information. Contact your FAA for further assistance.

However, you must submit documentation to your FAA from the Department of Education's Drug Enforcement and Compliance Monitoring Office that shows what aid you may be eligible to receive.
- 56 Your application cannot be processed because our records indicate that you are currently being denied aid from one or more Title IV Federal assistance programs by court order under terms of the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988. If you find that any of these items are incorrect, you should make corrections on your SAR where appropriate.
- 62 In addition, the Social Security Administration could not confirm your claim of U.S. citizenship because of questions about your social security number, name, or date of birth.
- 63 As we have indicated on your previous SAR, the date of birth you reported on your application is inconsistent with the Social Security Administration's records.
- 64 As we have indicated on your previous SAR, the name you reported on your application does not correspond with the social security number you provided in Item 8. - 69 You reported in Item 31 that you were an undergraduate student. This conflicts with the information you reported in Items 33 and/or 54.
- 70 Your answers to Items 33 and 54 show that you will either have a bachelor's degree by July 1, 1999 or you will be a Graduate/Professional student in 1999-2000. If this assumption is wrong, correct Item 25 by entering your two-character state code.
- 74 The date you reported in Item 17 as the date you were married, separated, divorced, or widowed does not appear to be correct. Review this information and provide the correct month and year that your marital status changed.
- 75 You changed your marital status to "married." You are required to report marital status as of the date that you signed your original student aid application, and you should not update this item if you get married after you sign and submit your 1999-2000 student aid application. Review your response and make sure it is correct.
- 76 We could not determine your eligibility for Federal student aid based on the information you reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To receive Federal student aid, you must provide current proof to your FAA that the social security number on this ISIR is yours.
- 59 We could not determine from the Social Security Administration if the social security number you reported belongs to you because you did not give us your last name or date of birth. Correct “Name” and/or “Date of Birth” under Step One of this ISIR.

- 70 Your answers to “Bachelor’s Degree by 7-1-1999” in Step One or “Working on Degree Beyond Bachelor’s in 1999-2000?” in Step Two show that you will either have a bachelor’s degree by July 1, 1999 or you will be a Graduate/Professional student in 1999-2000. - 73 You did not tell us your state of legal residence. To calculate your eligibility for Federal student aid, we assumed that your state of legal residence is the same as your mailing state (for independent students) or your parents’ state (for dependent students whose mailing state is blank). If this assumption is wrong, correct “State of Legal Residence” in Step One.
- 74 The date you reported in “Marital Status Date” as the date you were married, separated, divorced or widowed does not appear to be correct. Review this information and provide the correct month and year that your marital status changed.
- 75 You changed your marital status to “married.” You are required to report marital status as of the date that you signed your original student aid application, and you should not update this item if you get married after you sign and submit your 1999-2000 student aid application. Review your response and make sure it is correct.
