

We have processed your application for federal student aid or the correction that you submitted electronically through your school or on the Web. On the back of this page we printed the information we received and a summary of the results of processing that information. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for those items on the back of the page. Contact your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) if:	0000001
- the assumptions we made are not correct,	0000001
- you need to make other corrections,	0000001
- we indicate below that more information is needed to determine your eligibility,	0000001
- we indicate below you are selected for verification, or	0000001
- we indicate below you must work with your FAA to resolve some eligibility issues.	0000001

If all the information on this Student Aid Report is correct, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid in 2001-2002. Your FAA will determine whether you meet all other requirements to receive aid. The amount of aid will depend on the cost of attendance at your school, your enrollment status, Congressional budget restrictions, and other factors.	0000003

You must resolve some issues before we can determine your eligibility for federal student aid. Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your Student Aid Report (SAR), contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrected SAR no later than August 15, 2002.	0000008
